

LOGO

What if the book you need is not held at the University of Ballarat Library? How about requesting it online from another university and having it delivered to your selected library for you to borrow?

BONUS+ is a resource-sharing project that University of Ballarat staff and students can use to request books from other participating libraries in Victoria, New South Wales, Western Australia and New Zealand.

BONUS+